COMPETITION REQUIREMENTS:

1. All entrants must have read and be familiar with the Colorado State Fair General Competition Requirements, General Livestock Competition Requirements and Health Requirements. When applicable, all Association rules shall apply. Colorado State Fair Management will also enforce all PDCA Competition Requirements and Show Ring Code of Ethics.
2. All entrants for livestock exhibited in Open, Breed or Market competitions shall provide a premises identification number (PID) at the time of entry.
3. BEDDING: Exhibitors are responsible for their own livestock bedding. Entry into competition at the Colorado State Fair and Industrial Exposition does not include bedding. Bedding may be pre-purchased at the time of entry. Pre-purchased bedding may be picked up in the designated area on load-in days. Exhibitors must be present to claim their pre-purchased bedding. Refunds will not be issued for any pre-purchased bedding.

Straw may only be used for Dairy Cattle, Dairy Goats, Breeding Sheep and Cattle tie-outs. All other uses of straw are prohibited.

Outside bedding for livestock exhibitors is permitted.

4. Colorado residency is not required. Exhibitors must be enrolled and active in 4-H (being 8 years of age and not have reached their 19th birthday as of December 31, 2020); in FFA and active in an approved VoAg school program and not have reached their 19th birthday as of December 31, 2020, or a Jr. Breeding Association member with have proof of membership, as a current year breeding project, and not have reached their 21st birthday as of December 31, 2020.
5. Females may be purebred or high grade. In case of grade heifers, exhibitor must submit proof of ownership (Colorado Brand Certificate/Permit) at check in. Registered animals must be registered or leased by an association under the name of the exhibitor with original papers in hand at check in. Association leases must be filed with the county by the May deadline.
6. Original registration papers on all registered animals must be available for inspection at the show.
7. Substitutions and add-ons must be made upon arrival and check-in. No exceptions. No exceptions will be accepted at the time of show.

8. To be eligible for competition, animals must be the bona fide property of the exhibitor. Registration papers / ownership papers and legal transfer forms must be in the exhibitor's name prior to showing. Transfers not formalized by the respective national breed association prior to show will be picked up by the superintendents and mailed to the appropriate breed association.
9. Owners/farms and families will be limited to 20 animals they may enter in individual classes. No more than two premiums will be awarded any one owner in individual classes unless otherwise specified.
10. Animals owned in partnership may be shown in the name of the partnership only; except that at time of entry, a determination shall be made that such animals will be shown in the name of one (but not both) partners.
11. Exhibitor is considered the owner or member of the partnership owning the animal. Members of the same family or different families owning animals housed, as one herd on the same farm, will be considered as one exhibitor.
12. Breeder is considered the owner of the dam at the time of service.
13. Exhibitors should wear white shirts with white pants as appropriate show ring attire. No shorts will be allowed. No names or emblems will be allowed on animals or exhibitors.
14. ENTRY NUMBERS: Each entry will be assigned a number. Entry numbers will be provided to all exhibitors. These numbers must be displayed by the exhibitor when the animal is in the show ring.
15. In keeping with the basic philosophy of the PDCA, ethics are the individual responsibility of the owner of each animal shown. All exhibitors must maintain a reputation of integrity and present a wholesome and progressive image of Dairy Cattle in the proper care of and management of those animals at all times. All animals must be in a sound, health state and presented in the show ring in a respective manner. Violations of this code are subject to the disciplinary provisions of the appropriate dairy breed association and CSF Management.
16. Misrepresenting the age and/or milk status of any animal for the class in which shown, will be reported to the respective breed association and show management and will result in the animal and exhibitor being immediately disqualified.
17. Criticizing and/or interfering with the judges, CSF Management, Superintendent or other exhibitors while on the Colorado State Fair premises, or any other conduct detrimental to the breed or show, will result in immediate dismissal from the grounds and disqualification.
18. 1st through 6th place ribbons will be awarded in show classes.
