

EXHIBITOR CODE OF CONDUCT

The Colorado State Fair is a family friendly event. As an exhibitor, or legal guardian of an exhibitor, who is participating in competitive events at the Colorado State Fair, you have the responsibility of representing yourself and your dependents in the eyes of the public. Those participants who do not adhere to the Colorado State Fair General Rules and Regulations, Colorado State Fair Exhibitor Code of Conduct, and IAFE National Code of Showring Ethics, are subject to consequences based on the sole discretion of the Colorado State Fair Authority.

Violations of the Colorado State Fair Exhibitor Code of Conduct include, but are not limited to:

1. Any disruptive or improper conduct, including unnecessary verbalized or printed profanity.
2. Violence of any sort.
3. Theft of any sort.
4. Vandalism of any public or private property.
5. Any unlawful use of drug or alcohol consumption and/or distribution.
6. Any verbal or physical acts of aggression or harassment directed towards another person, animal, exhibit, or personal property.
7. Any sort of tampering of the competition's events or entries.

The Colorado State Fair reserves the right to extend, withhold, or revoke an invitation to any Exhibitor, or Exhibitor and their Legal Guardian, who does not adhere to the Colorado State Fair Code of Conduct.

Acknowledgment:

I have read the Colorado State Fair Exhibitor Code of Conduct above and agree to abide by these expectations. I realize my failure to do so may result in the loss of privilege for myself, or my dependent, to exhibit in any competitive event at the Colorado State Fair. Additional consequences may include the loss of premiums, the immediate dismissal from the Colorado State Fair Grounds, or the loss of the ability to participate in future events at the Colorado State Fair.
