Competition Requirements

1. All entrants must have read and be familiar with the General Competition Requirements, Livestock and Small Animal Competition Requirements, Junior Livestock Competition Requirements, Colorado State Fair Exhibitor Code of Conduct, Animal Welfare Policy, and Livestock Health Requirements. When applicable, all association rules shall apply.
2. All entrants for livestock exhibited in Open, Breed, or Market competitions must provide a valid premises identification number (PID) at entry. To obtain a PID, contact the Department of Agriculture at 303-869-9130 or click on the following link:
<https://ag.colorado.gov/animals/colorado-location-identification-lid-registration-premises>
3. Bedding: Exhibitors are responsible for their own livestock bedding. Entry into competition at the Colorado State Fair and Industrial Exposition (“State Fair”) does not include bedding.

Exhibitors may pre-order bedding and shavings through the official bedding vendor, or bedding and shavings will be available to purchase on-grounds from said vendor upon arrival. The phone number and order portal will be posted on the Authority’s website.

Straw may only be used for Breeding Sheep, Dairy Cattle, Dairy Goats, and for Open Breeding Cattle tie-outs. All other uses of straw are prohibited.

Outside bedding for livestock exhibitors is permitted.
4. This is a special class for heifers purchased through the Colorado FFA Foundation Heifer Grant Program.
5. At all times when the barns are open to the public and while an exhibitor’s heifer is on display, either an FFA instructor or other designated adult must be present with the exhibitor’s heifer..
6. A completed Colorado FFA Heifer Wrangle Record Book must be turned into the FFA Superintendents by 9:00 a.m. the day of show.
7. Official FFA dress must be worn while showing the heifers.

8. ENTRY NUMBERS: Each entry will be assigned a number. Entry numbers will be provided to all exhibitors. The exhibitor must display these numbers when the animal is in the show ring.
9. Each exhibitor will be held responsible for daily duties and clean up. Awards and prize money will be withheld from the exhibitor not participating in duties, unless otherwise specified by the FFA Foundation Fairs and Shows Committee.
10. The Authority has a showmanship class for all FFA Heifer Wrangle exhibitors. You must pre-enter this class with no entry fee.
11. Overall Champion and Reserve Champion awards will be presented following the class. Awards will be made with consideration given to show ring placing and showmanship. Class ribbon placing and Showmanship ribbons will be 1st through 6th.
12. If, for safety reasons, a junior exhibitor needs help, he or she must contact the Authority livestock management or General Livestock Superintendent to obtain permission for assistance. Assistance may only be provided by immediate family members (father, mother, stepfather, stepmother, sister, brother, grandparents, or legal guardian of the exhibitor – this does not include hired family employees). The Authority Superintendent must observe the assistance provided, and the junior exhibitor/owner must be present when family members(s) and Superintendent(s) are aiding with the preparation of the exhibitor's animal. Family members can also help with verbal support, leading animals, feeding, and watering.
